IMMIGRATION HAS RUINED OUR NATION

Britain is struggling economically. All across Britain, especially in England, local councils are struggling to cope with the budget cuts and are cutting services.

This is not the time to open Britain's doors to many thousands of impoverished Roma people from Eastern Europe.

If the predicted thousands of Roma come to Britain in 2014 and 2015 they will need housing, they will want school places for their children, they will want NHS treatment, NHS dental care, housing benefits, social services of all kinds, jobs and expensive translation services.

How will local authorities meet their demands? Services to the existing population are already being cut, school places and medical services are already stretched.

There is a massive shortage of council housing and social housing provision.

The last thing Britain needs now is a massive influx of people seeking a full range of services and not being able to speak English, understand British customs or the British way of life.

Who will pay for everything these people are going to need?

Not the European Union countries they are leaving - BUT THE BRITISH TAX-PAYER.

The picture above appeared in the Sunday Telegraph newspaper in October 2013 - the couple pictured here are a Czech Roma woman and her Slovakian Roma partner. They are living in Peterborough and are both claiming benefits neither has worked for at least six months. There are at least another 3,000 East European Roma in Peterborough and the majority of them were living on benefits in October 2013.

At Gladstone Primary School in Peterborough none of the 441 children have English as their first language. There are over 20 different languages spoken in that school. It is a fact that immigrants arriving in Britain, who barely speak our language want and need resources such as housing and children's services that are scarce and already under pressure.

It is also a fact that these people tend to settle in urban areas where local resources are under pressure and to meet the sudden arrival of unemployed economic migrants with families, the local British people are pushed lower down the waiting lists even though they have been on the list for years and have family connections in the area.

ENOUGH IS ENOUGH !

It is not the intention of this leaflet to incite hatred for any person or any group of people on grounds of their race, colour or culture but

RACE HATE GROUP IN FLYER FURY

Bigots target Ulster immigrants

BY TINA CALDER

FLYERS blaming foreigners for eroding "British" neighbourhoods have been posted through letter-boxes in Northern Ireland.

And the group behind the racist campaign has vowed more are to come which has a faction called Ulster Sunchoes, it claims immigrants "transplant their own culture and customs within British neighbourhoods".

Now local and immigrant families in North Belfast where the racist literature was being put out door-to-door last week are living in fear.

One mother who was afraid to give her name said: "This is not just targeting foreign nationals and immigrants, I believe it is also targeting families from here who may not agree with its contents."

"There are women literally afraid to walk down the street and foreign nationals who are in fear of their lives."

The single A4 double-sided sheet repeats the message: "Immigration has ruined our nation", over and over again.

It tells supporters to "Put our own people first" and claims "British working-class people" are being "forced" to compete for resources that are being cut.

Stephen Frost, an activist for The British

Movement in West Yorkshire, said: "Our organisation has representatives in all the provinces of the United Kingdom."

"Our volunteers and activists intend to distribute thousands of these leaflets across Northern Ireland."

"Immigration is starting to affect Ulster and the corrosive intrusion of Third World immigration and uncontrolled Eastern European Roma immigration will have the same detrimental impact in Northern Ireland as it has in England, Wales and Scotland."

On its website, the group claimed its "literature has been well received in Belfast and other towns and villages, the anti-immigration leaflets being read across both Protestant and Catholic communities".

Two pictures are also posted of their symbols at the Twaddell protest camp, with the caption: "British Movement posters on display outside the Twaddell Twaddell Avenue protest camp in Belfast."

But a spokesman for the Twaddell camp said the posters were removed "within a few minutes", torn up and thrown in the bin.

Antiracism campaigner and author Jayne Olorunda said: "It is no secret that racians and racism are two sides of the one coin. Surely this country has seen enough hatred over the years?"

Editorial

The political climate in Europe, Britain and the Middle East enters the Spring of 2014 in a state of change. Despite all the machinations of the bureaucrats at the European Union headquarters in Brussels, in Greece the Golden Dawn survives; in France the populist nationalist Front National has seen local electoral successes, in Hungary the pro-nationalist government has been returned in the elections.

The EU globalist elite hate any kind of manifestation of nationalism and will use all manner of subterfuge to undermine resistance to EU globalism and soft-left internationalism.

Ukraine is in turmoil with strong nationalist elements in the Kiev government, but strong Russian nationalist opposition is being backed by Moscow. The EU and USA are meddling on the side-lines and regrettably it is Ukraine that will suffer in the long term.

In the Middle East Syria continues to suffer the ravages of civil war and international interference. As in the Ukraine there are competing globalist influences on events in Syria; the EU has slyly used the refugee crisis to bring thousands of displaced Syrians into Europe. Former British Prime Minister Tony Blair, in his guise as a 'Middle East Peace Envoy' stokes up the pro-Israel and pro-USA foreign policy agenda and Syria suffers. Meanwhile back in the UK the government and media try to play down the flow of 'British Muslim' volunteers travelling to Syria to fight in the jihad.

British domestic politics faces the stage managed referendum on Scottish independence, a contrived side-show designed to divide the United Kingdom and distract the population from the real threats to British identity posed by continued Third World immigration into Britain and a rapidly growing non-white population.

The time for National Socialism in Britain is now.

Taking the British National Socialist Message Out Onto the Streets The Old Style Marches and Confrontations Will Not Work in 2014

The British Movement leadership are often asked the question,
“When is BM going to organise a march like in the Old Days?”

Meaning a mass turnout and march in the style of the 1970's and 1980's.

The answer is that BM is not going to return to a strategy that campaign model that is over 30 years out of date.

Times have changed and our tactics have to change to fit into the modern situation.

Resisting multi-culturalism and challenging the multi-racial society is one thing, but setting our people up to be attacked on all sides by organised mobs of 'Reds' and hordes of non-whites, whilst being 'kettled' and harassed by the Police is another.

The town centres and city centres of most British urban environments are not what they were back in the days of the old style marches and rallies.

Most inner city areas are now dominated by the non-whites, so who will see the march?

The Police will impose draconian Public Order restrictions on any mass turnout, and will film and photograph every face taking part, then will 'kettle' the main body of protesters for hours on the flimsiest 'Public Order' excuse. The general public will get nowhere near the march or rally to hear the speeches or be given any literature. The Police will prevent anyone from getting close enough to speak to the activists and will try to frighten people away from taking part. The negative points and drawbacks of such activities far outweigh any short-term gains to be made from these high profile mass turnout activities.

In 2014, small activities are more effective; 'flash mob' tactics avoid unnecessary and unproductive confrontations; the public gets to meet Movement activists up close, can be given Movement literature and ask questions if they wish.

Adapt and Succeed Evolve and Move Forward.

MULTI-RACIAL MADNESS

Broadsword looks at the stories and incidents drawn from across the media in Britain that best illustrate the depths into which our country has sunk, as the Government, the media, the police and the Race Relations industry conspire against the indigenous British people to impose a multi-cultural society on Britain. How British culture, values and traditions are undermined by political correctness, minority interests and racial equality. Stories which reveal the harsh reality of life in a multi-cultural Britain and the betrayal of the White British majority population.

AN illegal immigrant has mounted a "human rights" battle to stay in the UK after fathering five children here in six years.

Mohammed Zulfikar, 50, smuggled himself into Britain on a fake passport.

Now he will receive legal aid so lawyers can lodge a claim that he is entitled to "the right to a family life" instead of being deported home to Pakistan.

Zulfikar paid £18,000 to a mystery Mr Frit-It for forged travel documents so he could enter the UK illegally in 2002.

But after spending 11 years under the radar of the authorities he was arrested when he applied for a licence to work as a doorman using a bogus passport to support his application.

Counterfeit

Checks revealed that the man named in the passport had reported it stolen, while a national insurance number quoted by Zulfikar belonged to a dead man.

Last night Zulfikar's wife claimed she did not speak any English when approached at the family home in Bradford where the couple lived with their five children aged under six.

Migrant child rapist sues UK for breach of his 'human rights'

A SUDANESE rapist who preyed on girls as young as 13 is suing Justice Secretary Chris Grayling over "frustration and anxiety" caused by a delay to his parole hearing.

Adil Aboukadir, 38, was jailed for a minimum of four years for his part in the abuse of three vulnerable girls.

He was said to have led a gang of five Darfur refugees who groomed victims aged 14 and 15 in Dartford, Kent.

Aboukadir had already launched a series of taxpayer-funded legal actions which could cost Britain more than £250,000 and block moves to deport him for years.

Now he wants damages, against his previous rights claim.

Members of the Ukrainian parliament in Kiev demonstrate a new style of political debate.

Members of the Nationalist party Svoboda chastise members of the communist opposition in the debating chamber.

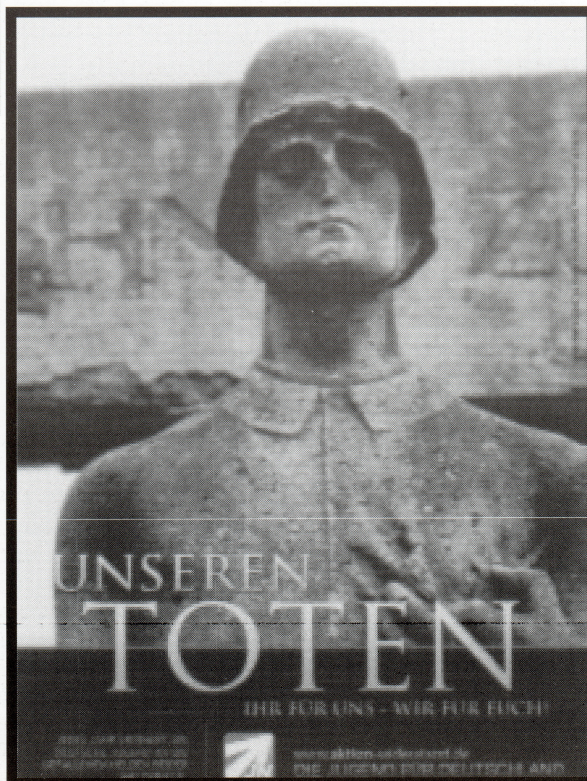

British politics could certainly learn something here. Broadsword would enjoy seeing British Nationalist MP's in the House of Commons dealing with left-wing Labour MP's in such a robust manner.

The situation elsewhere in Ukraine is not quite so entertaining, there is every likelihood that Russia will annex some of the territories of the Eastern Ukraine and within the EU and in the USA there are hostile voices criticising the involvement of Nationalist and pro-NS organisations in the revolution in Kiev.

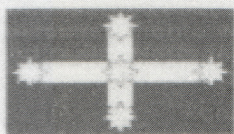

At least one supporter of the Right Sector alliance of organisations has been murdered and the future for Ukraine continues to look uncertain.

SCOTLAND FOREVER - BRITAIN TOGETHER

The False Nationalism of the Scottish National Party Must Not Be Allowed To Divide And Weaken Britain

The political momentum is building across Scotland as the Scottish National Party led referendum approaches at the end of Summer 2014.

The SNP is not truly a Nationalist party and peddles a soft-Left form of populist nationalism, anyone can become a Scot under the SNP policies; any non-white immigrants who have gained 'British' citizenship can join the SNP and speak for Scotland.

The 2014 referendum is just another form of the old

'Divide and Conquer' strategy. Without Scotland Britain will be weaker, financially, economically, industrially and militarily.

While it is true that the Westminster based, London centric British Government has not favoured Scotland ever, even when the UK was being governed by a Scottish Prime Minister. For Scotland to break away from the Union is not the answer. A total political restructuring of the British political system is; a National Socialist state.

BROADSWORD'S CAMPAIGN AGAINST 'POLITICAL CORRECTNESS'

A Weak Judicial System Fails To Deal Harshly With Sex Offenders Liberal Policies Are Being Forced On British Society.

British Movement Demands A Crack-Down On Paedophiles and Sexual Degeneracy.

The Labour Party - The National Council for Civil Liberties-
- The Paedophile Information Exchange-
A Scandal From the 1970's Returns to Haunt the Labour Leadership

WHAT IS THIS SCANDAL ABOUT?

Way back in the mid-1970's, on the fringes of the campaigns for legalising homosexual rights, there existed an organisation called the Paedophile Information Exchange (PIE).

PIE campaigned alongside 'Gay Rights' organisations and petitioned for the age of sexual consent to be reduced to an unbelievable 10 years of age; some PIE elements wanted it reduced to a staggering FIVE YEARS OF AGE.

Hiding behind a cloak of liberal values, PIE was an organised campaign group of sexual deviants and perverts, who shared platforms and protests with so-called 'Gay Liberation' organisations. PIE had over 300 members by the time the police finally shut it down in the middle of the 1980's.

The Paedophile Information Exchange was a fully paid up associate group under the umbrella of the National Council for Civil Liberties. It held this status from around 1975 till some time in 1983, so it was not a short lived association.

Now, the Labour Party has been publicly embarrassed by the role played in the NCCL by people who are now senior figures in the Labour Party. Throughout February and March 2014, the Labour Party has fought hard to get this story out of the media headlines and to bury this unsavoury aspect of Labour Party liberalism.

Labour Party deputy leader Harriet Harman allegedly refused to kick the PIE group out of the NCCL because she was afraid it 'would damage her career'. To act might have upset the militant homosexual equality lobby.

Now in 2014, Harriet Harman has tried to duck away from this period of her political career and refused to apologise for her past position.

Other Labour Party figures involved in the NCCL at this time were former MP Patricia Hewitt and Labour MP Jack Dromey, who also happens to be Harriet Harman's husband.

Do they still hold the same radical liberal views towards sexual deviants?

BY THEIR CONVICTIONS YOU SHALL KNOW THEM..... Sexual Deviancy in the Ranks of the Conservative Party

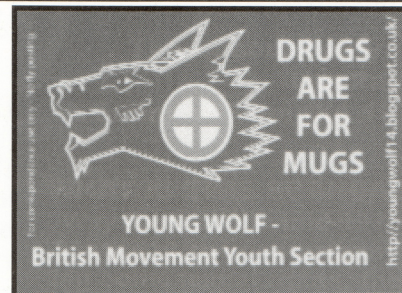

Across January and February 2014, the media appeared to collaborate with the Tory party by playing down the news that a senior Government advisor and Conservative Party policy guru had resigned after the disclosures that he was an avid fan of child-sex pornography.

Add to this the regular updates of the investigations into the Jimmy Savile scandal, how many senior people in the BBC knew about Savile's predatory sexual activities? How many police officers covered up for Jimmy Savile?

Jimmy Savile was a high profile supporter of the Conservative Prime Minister Margaret Thatcher, he was a frequent guest at Chequers, the PM's private country retreat. The security services MI5 and Special Branch would have investigated Jimmy Savile, as a routine security measure. They must have come across his sexual activities, so why was this not followed up?

How much material on Jimmy Savile has been quietly destroyed by Whitehall mandarins?

The disgusting details of the late Liberal MP Cyril Smith's sexual abuse of young men and boys in the Rochdale area refuses to go away. It is now a matter of public record that Cyril Smith was protected from prosecution by MI5 and Special Branch.

A National Socialist View of Life in Britain's Capital City

The Struggle For Survival of White British Londoners in the Swamp of Multi-Racial Chaos and Enforced 'Diversity' That Has Taken Over Greater London

By Broadsword correspondent Ed London.

Now that the White British are officially an ‘ethnic minority’ in London it is even more interesting to see how the ‘majority’ non-white communities conduct themselves and contribute to the diverse cultural and economic life of Britain’s ‘First City’.

TOWER HAMLETS

Over 30% of the borough population is Bengladeshi - add to that all the other non-Europeans and non-Aryans in the borough and there are precious few White British living there.

This is the pattern that is being repeated all across 'Greater London'

No wonder that many no longer consider London to be a British city.

Now the mayor of Tower Hamlets Mr Lutfur Rahman is being investigated by government auditors into the increased tax-payer funding for Somali and Bangladeshi organisations in the borough, while council grants and spending were being cut everywhere else.

While other funding grants were being cut by 25%, tax-payer funding funding for Bengali and Somali groups increased from £1.5million to £3.6 million.

An investigation by the BBC TV documentary 'Panorama' team into Mr Lutfur Rahman and his political activities has triggered the Government interest into the grant funding of specific ethnic minority organisations in Tower Hamlets.

Mayor Lutfur Rahman is of course a Bengali, and used to be a Labour Party activist and leader of the Labour group on Tower Hamlets council.

Of course bribes, cash ‘sweeteners’ and other elements of corruption are all part and parcel of political life in Africa and South-East Asia, so is it any surprise that migrants from those continents bring these customs and practices with them when they settle in ‘multi-cultural’ Britain?

Creating a Spirit of Resistance

Up and down the United Kingdom in the centres of towns and villages, small groups of British Movement activists are actively distributing BM leaflets and other items of literature to ordinary White British working-class people.

Although the liberal and left-leaning media might not like this, the shoppers and workers that our activists encounter are not only supportive of the BM presence but openly voice their agreement with what BM is saying about race and immigration.

The concept of multi-culturalism and a multi-racial Britain has been dumped on the British public by a metropolitan elite with no concept of the situation immigration creates in working-class neighbourhoods, and a total disregard for the thoughts or opinions of the White British population.

British Movement is working hard to build a spirit of resistance to immigration and multi-culturalism amongst the indigenous British population. To show the ordinary folk of our country that they do not have to accept the dictatorship of the left-wing multi-racialists. That it is acceptable to reject the propaganda and enforcement of 'diversity'.

The first steps towards embracing National Socialism is the generation of racial-awareness and racial identity.

BRITISH JUSTICE ? OR SOFT MULTI-CULTURALIST JUSTICE?

Continuing the story from page 5.

Preston Crown Court - March 18th 2014.

Suleman Maknojioa a 40 year old Islamic teacher from Blackburn, was convicted of the sexual molestation of an eleven year old girl during lessons on the Koran at his mosque.

Despite the fact that the court found Maknojioa guilty of five counts of sexual activity with a child, the judge granted him a suspended sentence and let him walk out of court.

His defending counsel Frida Hussain told the court,

"He is married with six children. His wife doesn't work and speaks very little English. They are dependent on him to lead their lives and with the running of the household. One of the children has learning difficulties."

The Conservative MP Philip Davies accurately summed the situation up by stating,

"The liberal, wet, lily-livered judiciary are out of touch with public opinion."

But a convicted sex-offender was still allowed to walk free onto the streets of Blackburn.

Now unemployed, Maknojioa and his wife and six children are living on benefits - courtesy of the British tax-payer.

A British Movement judicial system would have sentenced this pervert to imprisonment with hard-labour followed by deportation on release of him and his family back to Pakistan.

HOME -GROWN JIHAD

A Threat To Britain's Future

Stories that seem to have been deliberately kept off the front pages of most British newspapers.

There are officially recognised numbers of British born Muslims travelling abroad to support militant Islamic groups in conflict zones in Asia, Africa and the Middle East.

Returning jihadists have been picked up by anti-terrorist police at the main British international airports, some returning from fighting in Syria, others from Afghanistan or Somalia.

Home- grown jihadists have been reported returning to homes in Birmingham, London and Greater Manchester, these are the ones that have actually been reported in the media, but how many more are there walking the streets of British towns and cities?

In February 2014, a story actually surfaced in the national press, a British passport holder from Crawley in West Sussex was reported to have been killed driving a lorry loaded with a huge suicide bomb in an attack on Syrian government buildings in Aleppo. The 'British' jihadist was named as 41 year old Abdul Waheed Majeed, who had been in Syria fighting under the jihadist name 'Abu Suleiman al-Britani'. In November 2013, word leaked out that a 20 year old man from West London, Mohammed el-Araj, had been killed fighting alongside the jihadists in Syria, and was not the first British passport holder to have been killed in combat there. Of course stories about jihadist volunteers returning to live in ethnic minority communities in the UK might make for a more 'diverse' society, but these men are trained killers with extensive combat experience, knowledge of military weapons and explosives and the tactics of modern guerilla warfare.

How will they enrich British society ?

If there are future social tensions in their neighbourhoods, will these men step forward to defend their communities using the skills they have gathered fighting for jihad overseas ?

RICHES TO EVEN RICHER THE RISE AND FURTHER RISE OF FORMER PRIME MINISTER TONY BLAIR

The Public Face of 'New Labour' when he was elected Prime Minister of Britain
Is this the reality of 'Champagne Socialism' ?

He is now a multi-millionaire, an international 'Peace Envoy', a consultant to one of the world's largest finance corporations and international bank, he commands huge fees on the American corporate business lecture circuits, he has an impressive property portfolio in the UK. Yet he once classed himself as a 'socialist' and was elected to lead the Labour Party, supposedly the political voice of the British working-class.

Tony Blair was the poster-boy leader of the re-launched Labour Party in the 1990's, so-called 'New Labour'. However, Tony Blair was not from a working-class or trade union background, he was privately educated, had qualified as a lawyer, and had trained as a barrister before becoming a career politician.

Tony Blair was typical of the new style Labour politicians coming forward in the late 1980's to re-shape the Party and oust the old order to create 'New Labour'. Blair was surrounded by a coterie of political elitists like himself, from the same kind of private education, public school, Oxford or Cambridge university backgrounds. New Labour was shaped by ambitious, middle-class political idealists.

Tony Blair was sold to the British public as a charismatic democratic socialist, a champion of the underdog, the ordinary people. He was the champion of all the liberal causes; he was anti-racist, he was anti-Apartheid, he supported the Campaign for Nuclear Disarmament (CND), and he campaigned for Peace in Northern Ireland.

Yet despite all the left-leaning public persona of his Labour Party electioneering, when he became Prime Minister he signed off on the Trident nuclear missile programme, he took Britain into the war in Iraq and fully supported a neo-Conservative American foreign policy.

Prime Minister Blair worked hard to bring peace to Northern Ireland by signing up to secret deals with the Irish Republican and Sinn Fein and the former Provisional IRA terrorist leaders.

After leaving office he stepped straight into a world of highly paid consultant and lecturing tours in the USA; bizarrely he became a world Peace Envoy to the Middle East, even though he was well known for his role in pro-Israeli organisations in the Labour Party. How could Tony Blair impartially deal with the Palestinians and Arab nations?

He has become incredibly wealthy and spends a lot of his leisure time with some of the world's richest people. He has expensive tastes and maintains several very expensive homes in the UK.

No friend of the real British working-class

Blair's government was slack on immigration control, took Britain into the war in Iraq, sold out British interests to the European Union, and placed Britain on the world stage as America's poodle. Tony Blair also 'works' as an advisor to J P Morgan the huge American investment bank.

No longer popular or credible with the British political 'Left'.

This is how the 'Guardian' newspaper reflected its opinion on Tony Blair on 2014. The left-wing 'Guardian' was one of the media outlets that championed 'New Labour' when Tony Blair first came to political prominence and hailed his election as Prime Minister as a great triumph - now he is declared to be a 'Toxic' brand.

Guardian journalist Andy Beckett says of Blair,

"With his salesman smile and large self-belief, Blair has always been a slippery and restless figure."

So much for the figurehead of New Labour, so why did the established Left support Blair in the first place?

Have they forgotten already how they held Tony Blair up as a leading example of modern democratic socialism ?

"What we must fight for is to safeguard the existence and reproduction of our race and our people, the sustenance of our children and the purity of our blood, the freedom and independence of the fatherland, so that our people may mature for the fulfillment of the mission allotted it by the creator of the universe."

Ukraine

The Power of Nationalism on the Streets

The revolutionary actions on the streets of Kiev has sent a collective shudder down the spines of Putin in Moscow and the assorted 'democratic' Western European governments.

The Ukrainian despot Yanukovich was overthrown by the anger and determination of ordinary Ukrainian citizens, not through the 'democratic' circus of elections and the ballot box or by the tanks and guns of an invading army.

The presence of organised Nationalist groups at the forefront of the action has thrown many British political commentators into near panic, Left-wing journalists have been quick to point out the statements of a leading politician from the Ukrainian Nationalist organisation Svoboda who said that Putin and Russia should not interfere in Ukraine, stating that Ukraine did not heed the "Moscow Jewish mafia".

A spokesman for the Pravy Sektor told a British reporter that they did not want the European Union either.

"For us Europe is not an issue, in fact joining with Europe would be the death of Ukraine. Europe means the death of the nation state and the death of Christianity.

We want a Ukraine for the Ukrainians, run by Ukrainians and not serving the interests of others."

Ukrainian nationalist banners on display at the beginning of protests in Kiev.

Prominently displayed is the image of the prominent Ukrainian nationalist leader of the 1930's and 1940's Stefan Bandera.

The alliance of Ukrainian nationalist, racial Nationalist and National Socialist groups, the 'Right Sector' (Pravy Sektor)

The unity of revolutionary purpose demonstrated on the streets of Kiev, Lviv and other Western Ukrainian towns and cities has worried both the Russian government and EU bureaucrats. In the UK and in Europe, Left-wing commentators have tried to distance themselves from supporting the actions of the organisations operating under the 'Right Sector' umbrella.

UKRAINE

The Lessons For British Nationalism

An image from the international news media : - In central Kiev, Riot Police step aside as a police officer opens fire on protestors.

If there is one thing that the British Establishment, the European Union bureaucrats and President Putin of Russia can be guaranteed to agree on it is that the revolution in Ukraine 'Must Not Happen Here'

They will be determined that such a situation is not duplicated and all steps will be taken to ensure that the victory in Kiev, outside an electoral system cannot be repeated.

Extra-parliamentary political groupings achieving major political change by direct action is not what the self-styled champions of 'democracy' want to see. They want to see only controlled political change through a tightly controlled election system, where the State has the final say and the voting process is carefully managed by the agencies of the State.

The use of riot police against unarmed protestors is nothing new, and here in the UK the Home Office and Association of Chief Police Officers (ACPO) has overseen the development of of police tactics and the strategies of crowd control and so-called 'Public Order Policing' .

The British Government has had decades to prepare and hone its skills at protecting the State from a Kiev style 'People Power' revolution. First the lessons of the 'Troubles' in Northern Ireland; the inner city riots of the early 1980's; the Miner's Strike and similar industrial disputes; the riots in Oldham and Bradford in 2001, the London riots in 2011, all these situations have been used to develop a security response.

All the hardware used by the Ukrainian Government in Kiev and elsewhere is available to the forces of the British Government.

To protect 'Parliamentary Democracy' the system would not hesitate to use lethal force against mass civil unrest, especially against large, organised,(unarmed) civilian crowds.

We must not kid ourselves that they would let it happen here.

If a similar situation were to arise on the streets of London, British Nationalists can expect the same response from the British police.

If a large body of British protestors were to besiege the entrance to Downing Street or Whitehall, the firearms officers of the Metropolitan Police would not hesitate to open fire on an unarmed crowd if their 'Gold Command' gave the orders.

The victory of the protestors in Ukraine will have been noted by the security services of every EU state including the UK.

The overthrow of the Ukrainian government by an extra-parliamentary political force will be studied, and somewhere within Whitehall, MI5 and the Home Office a case study will have been commissioned for a 'What If' contingency plan.

They will be prepared.

Molotov cocktails replace liberal ideals as far-right muscles in to Kiev protests

Headline from 'The Guardian' - Friday January 24th 2014

Contrived newspaper reporting makes it clear that the Establishment in the UK and the EU does not approve of the ideological motivation behind the protestors on the barricades in Kiev.

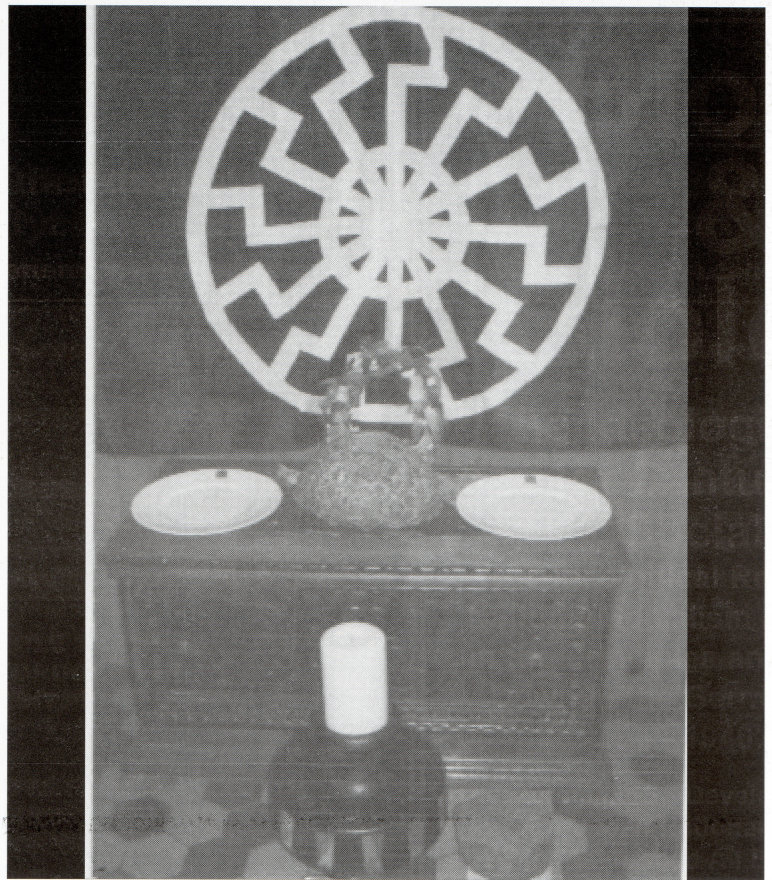

If the majority of the protestors had been fighting for liberal 'democratic' or Left-wing views, the reporting would have been very different, much less critical and would have been full of rhetoric about 'People-power' and the need to support the 'ideals' of the Ukrainian revolution.

The Ideological Roots of 21st Century National Socialism

The Ideological Roots of Modern National Socialism are to be Found in the Principles and Theories Laid Down in the Germanic-SS in the 1940's.

The Germanic-SS Developed the Concept of a Pan-European National Socialist Movement
Which Embraced All European Nations.
Those ideals Spread Beyond 1945 and Evolved
Into the Form of National Socialism
Advocated by British Movement Today.

In the World of the Multi-Culturalists, Common-Sense Goes Out of the Window.
The Dominant Majority are Forced to Submit to the Wishes of the Minorities.
In This Dictatorship of the Minorities the Natural Order is Turned on Its Head, the Weak and the Alien Dictates to the Strong and the Indigenous.

While the so-called 'Western Democracies' seem to have learned nothing at all from the lessons of history, post-Soviet Russia has taken a long hard look at the reality of the modern world.

In a speech to the Duma, the Russian Parliament in February 2013, President Vladimir Putin made these observations;

" In Russia live Russians. Any minority, from anywhere, if it wants to live in Russia, to work and eat in Russia, should speak Russian, and should respect the Russian laws. If they prefer Sharia Law, then we advise them to go to those places where that's the state law. Russia does not need minorities.

Minorities need Russia, and we will not grant them special privileges, or try to change our laws to fit their desires, no matter how loud they yell
' discrimination'.

We better learn from the suicides of America,
England, Holland and France, if we are to survive as a nation. The Russian customs and traditions are not compatible with the lack of culture or the primitive ways of most minorities. When this honourable legislative body thinks of creating new laws, it should have in mind the national interest first,
observing that the minorities are NOT Russians."
It is hardly surprising that this speech by Putin just over a year ago was not widely translated or broadcast in Western Europe, Britain or the USA.

President Putin may be many things, and he is not a National Socialist, but he is a Russian patriot.

As a former head of the Russian Security Services, the KGB in the Soviet era, he is well informed of the impact on Britain and Western Europe of mass Third World immigration and the corrosive nature of multi-racialism and multiculturalism on those countries.

Hence Putin's reference to " the suicides of America, England, Holland and France," where the dominant White European (Aryan) culture is being drowned in successive waves of non-white immigration, and where White European or British culture and traditions are being forced to change to meet the demands of the ethnic and religious minorities that are colonising the major urban centres.

Add to the dictates of the ethnic and religious minorities the growing impositions of the demands of the self-styled 'sexual minorities'; the LGBT (Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender) groups, which in recent decades have become highly politicised and have forced the homosexual lifestyle into the political arena. Now the entire legal structure of Britain is changing to meet the changes demanded by such minority interests, and it is the majority population that has to change. Which is wrong!

'The Things They Say.....

April 24th 2013 - Radio 2 - Chris Evan's Breafast Show

Dear Broadsword Editor;

Now that gob -se and reported lush Chris Evans, should now extol and endorse miscegenation for the rest of us, should really come as no great surprise. After two failed marriages to White women, his third wife, Natasha Shishmanian, has obviously given the 'ginger whinger' food for thought. He knows which side his bread is buttered on, and he'll bask in the media spotlight as a White, liberal 'hip' guy - at least while the money rolls in.

In reality of course, most Whites - apart from a higher working-class percentage, be they 'politicos', 'journos', TV types or 'luvvies' generally genuflect, brown-nose and schmooze, giving lip-service to the 'wonderful' virtues of the multi-cultural global village; talking heads mouthing the obligatory hyperbole. All 'Double think!'

If they truly, inwardly believed in it all we would see more of them hooked up with black folk.

But we don't do we. Why ?

You know as well as I do the reason why.

Chris Evan's wife isn't exactly from the Congo either.

Right on, bro !

Observations by: -

Fyrdman

Dear Broadsword,

I am writing to thank you for sending me the excellent information on Broadsword magazine.

I agree with everything you say about the way our country is being governed by the rotten LIBLABCON Party currently in Parliament. We also cannot remain in either the EU or ECHR, not the useless UN.

I urge fellow patriots to no longer continue to allow Cameron and Hague to deny us a say on the failed European Union. As for Milliband, this man cannot become Prime Minister, at any cost. His party has ruined our country with debt, mass immigration and involvement in dodgy American wars.

Let us act now and remove this stinking Establishment once and for all.

A. H. Essex.

Dear Broadsword,

Our government says that Britain can no longer afford an adequate defence force, the Army, Navy and RAF. Yet Britain has given hundreds of millions of pounds in aid to African nations.

More often than not the leaders of these countries have transferred large chunks of this aid cash into Swiss and American bank accounts in their own names. They are a bunch of greedy tyrants. A book worth reading is called "The State of Africa" by Meredith. The facts he exposes about the so-called African 'Independence Movements' are infuriating.

These tyrants have slaughtered millions of other Africans in what can only be described as tribal wars.

Then they ask Britain and the West for aid.

Now we see the Black South Africans clearing out the White Afrikaaners from the Cape.

Reports tell us that thousands of White farmers have been murdered by black gunmen.

The killers sing an ANC song with the lyrics, "Kill the farmers, shoot the Boer".

Is this not 'ethnic-cleansing' or anti-white racism? But the political Left won't defend oppressed Whites in Africa in case they are accused of 'racism'.

I think that the Left are people full of self-hate, racial guilt and shame. They have swallowed the cunning political theories of Jewish Marxists like Trotsky. The Marxist theorists who concocted the theory of 'Imperialism' and 'colonialism' to stir up the non-Europeans against the whites living in Africa.

Yet since the granting of independence to all those African countries, millions have been slaughtered in their internal wars, millions more have died of starvation or AIDS.

One African country got financial aid from Britain, it was supposed to feed the starving Africans. But their own politicians and bureaucrats used the cash to buy fleets of luxury cars with it. They didn't even buy British, but bought Mercedes Benz!

Its time we stopped feathering the nests of African politicians and used those taxes to improve the living standards of poor British families.

RADICAL OPINIONS

Opinions expressed in this column do not necessarily reflect the official British Movement position or policy but are included to stimulate debate and discussion on a wide range of topics of interest to our National Socialist and racial Nationalist readership.

Dear Broadsword,

A few comments on recent issues of Broadsword....

The BBC.. or Betray Britain Cabal. I gave up listening to the British version of Radio Moscow (Stalinist era) many, many decades ago, and what little television I've seen, (5% of any TV I watch) confirms my abhorrence of that mostly licence-fee funded cultural communist bigoted liberal, depraved liberal democracy propaganda medium accurately described in Broadsword. Of course Boaden remains as £340,000 per annum "director of radio" regardless of her part in ignoring the Savile sex abuses scandal, like the other (expletive deleted), Anne Bulford £395,000 per annum 'managing director of operations and finance', James Hardy £340,000 per year, 'director of news and current affairs', Danny Cohen £327,00 'director of television' and Tony Hall, £450,000 per year 'director general', plus all of them at the trough, all part of the Cabal imposing their scilous ideology on the indigenous British population year after year.

London On London - On a recent visit to the city where I was born, raised, schooled, and worked, (visiting an elderly relative) and from which I got out a long time ago as the tidal wave started to encroach, the inescapable fact that London, "ain't what it used to be" struck me with renewed force.

Seeing 'foreigners' everywhere, on the streets, in the shops and stores, working, owning shops and stores, driving buses etc. and their womenfolk with babies and toddlers and children with the interlopers 'Grand Mosque' towering over Regents Park representing the ever growing influence of Islam, with Islamists (note how the propaganda machine never calls them Muslims when they are slaughtering and destroying) in Parliament, and quangos and councils.

"We Will Have Our Country Back!" - I really don't see how.

This entire rotten to the core, corrupt, culturally communist - left/liberal state with its repressive laws, pervert-friendly laws, its all-embracing mass surveillance systems, its total output of media propaganda, the tsunami of foreign races and nationals settling and breeding here... protests, demos, leaflets, web-sites, are not going to stop, let alone overcome, this destructive process.

Revolution is a non-starter given the dumbed down, brainwashed generations of sheeple since the 1930's and throughout the war against Aryan civilization and since. Completely unlike the time when Hitler and the NSDAP rose to power in Germany with the support of the German people over 80 years ago.

U.C. Wales.

 Broadsword replies *****

A sobering and critical look at the present day situation here in Britain. These observations are harsh but true. It would be unrealistic to deny that what 'U.C.' observes as the reality of our situation today.

BUT as British National Socialists in the 21st Century we cannot afford to accept defeat and we must adapt ourselves and our strategy to deal with the conditions we find ourselves campaigning in.

This is not the 1930's, we recognise that, and we have taken a long, hard look at what will work, and what will not. Contrary to what is said here, there is still a place for protests, leaflets and web-sites - the response of the ordinary British public to our British Movement activists distributing BM literature in the shopping centres of British towns outside London, and outside the great multi-racial conurbations shows that there are still plenty of indigenous British people out there who want to halt this multi-racial madness and support those who are prepared to work and fight for a revival of the White British and want to identify with those who say

British Movement Women's Division

WOMEN ARE THE BEATING HEART OF OUR FOLK AND OUR NATION
They are the Ones Who Bear and Raise the Future Generations of the British Without Their Hearts and Minds There Will Be No '14 Words'

The future of our Folk and the British way of life will be decided in the nurseries and class-rooms of our primary schools. That is why the multi-culturalists put so much effort into instilling a mind set of 'diversity' and a multi-racial environment amongst pre-school and primary school children.

Even in the most remote rural communities, where no black, brown or oriental faces are ever seen, the play-group and class-room has to include posters, books and pictures that 'positively reflect' the cultures and customs of the ethnic minority communities. From the earliest years, British children are bombarded with the multi-culturalist message and are force-fed the idea that non-white people 'belong' in their country and are a positive influence on their community. It is very difficult to maintain a racially aware home-life, to instill positive Aryan values in our children when they are under such constant pressure to conform to a liberal multi-racial agenda.

As our children get older, the schools become more intensive in their condemnation of 'racism' and demand that our children reject their parent's 'racist' attitudes and ideas.

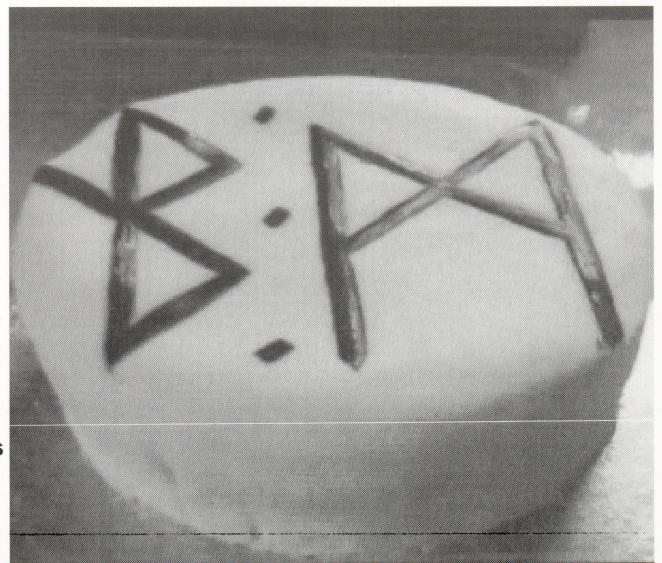

No child wants to be set apart from his or her friends at school because the teacher says that mum and dad are 'bad people' for being 'racists'.

It is a difficult task countering the state-sponsored brain-washing that our children endure. But if we are to succeed in achieving the ideals of the '14 Words', the mothers and grandmothers of White Britain must protect the minds of the future generations from being permanently poisoned against their own Folk.

BUILDING AN N.S. FUTURE

The creation of a National Socialist state in Great Britain is the ultimate goal of British Movement, and in order to achieve the creation of a National Socialist 'New Order' in the UK, we must first create the political conditions by which this situation can be realised.

This will be a long and difficult struggle, but it can be done, and for the future of our people it must be done. We must right the wrongs inflicted upon our people in the name of multi-racialism and multi-culturalism, we must regain the birth-right of our people taken from them by stealth and the lies of democratic politicians and Left-wing ideologists. So-called progressive thinkers and opinion makers who have corrupted our nation's psyche.

Building The National Socialist Revolution

Brick By Brick - Piece By Piece.

We Will Have Our Country Back!

THE LONG STRUGGLE - We Must Be Prepared For Years of Hard Work and Sacrifice

British National Socialism, indeed British racial Nationalism has been plagued for years by those who believe that ours will be an easy, short term struggle to achieve our goals.

How often have we heard the expression
"We will be in power in ten years" ?

That is a fantasy. Those who believe that the Establishment and all those who grow fat from it are going to simply roll over and give up all their power, influence and enrichment after an honest election defeat are living in a dream world.

Time and again over the decades the System has demonstrated that it controls the electoral system.

Even when the British National Party was taking council seats in local elections, there were many BNP activists supporting election candidates who reported serious interference with the voting process. It is certain that if the BNP had succeeded in getting a single MP elected to Westminster, the Whitehall machine would have isolated and neutralised that individual and would have plucked the gaps that allowed that person to be elected to the House of Commons. The System would make sure that such an electoral triumph was short lived and that there would certainly never be mass representation of racial Nationalism in Parliament. This is why British Movement does not waste time, effort, money or resources on elections.

BM recognises that to achieve our goals we have to be committed to a long, hard struggle. No short cuts, no easy victories.

A grassroots, mass movement, self contained and sustaining its own support network of events, social welfare programmes, counter culture, and self promotion through its own media. Always building, always developing, adding to the Movement's resources and influence, outside the electoral system, but creating a serious political alternative. The Establishment holds the rule book and controls a rigged game. It can only control the game if we agree to play by their rules.

National Socialism is NOT part of the system.

"In the Natural Order we have an obligation as a higher order of life to respect and deal fairly with lower orders of life such as animals and birds. Abominable cruelty is being regularly exerted in a vast number of cases and we must stand up as National Socialists for the animals and wildlife. In Britain the system has immense concern for the lower orders of humanity in Africa and the Third World. Whereas for us the many species of birds and animals are so much more beautiful and worthy of our concern. "

Colin Jordan.

Dear Broadsword,

The White British are being systematically brain-washed by the despicable Democratic media !

Standard Bearer - West Midlands

Dear Broadsword,

As a 76 year old Nationalist I now see people are waking up.

In France Marine Le Pen has had great success in the French local elections. In Hungary Jobbik is doing well, in Ukraine Right Sector is doing well. Perhaps there is hope for us yet.

People are so blind in this land of ours, by that I mean the true Anglo-Saxon and Celtic, pure White race of ours. The ones who have given their blood over the centuries. The sad thing is, we are being pushed aside by other races who flock here with HIV, AIDS, TB and many other diseases. They just come here to sponge for what they can get, but this shameful, weak Government does nothing, they only seem to be interested in money, and men marrying men and 'Gay' rights. It all shows how far this country has sunk.

I am an old man now, but I see no future for my six grandchildren, unless our people wake up and put a National Socialist government in power.

God knows, but people have tried in the past, men like Colin Jordan, John Tyndall, Arnold Leese, even Enoch Powell, even the BNP.

But people are so stupid that they can't see that the only answer is National Socialism.

Well All I Can Say Is

'Wake Up England!'

'England Awake !'

Dear Broadsword,

I am pleased to report that the latest issue of Broadsword arrived safely. I have enjoyed reading it and studying the articles. Once again this issue maintains the usual high standard and the uncompromising NS stance which reflects the policies of our Movement. The Editorial is excellent.

The policies expounded by the 'Old Gang of Westminster' parties becomes more farcical and chaotic as each week passes. They will not acknowledge that they have no real room for manoeuvre on the subject of immigration because of the EU and Human Rights legislation.

I was pleased to see the Broadsword reports on Golden Dawn. The review of the booklet "Live the Dream" is also very interesting and thought-provoking, I hope the plans outlined there come to fruition.

"Who Owns Our Country" is a subject which has concerned me for many years, especially the fact that many key industries in the public sector and the private sector are 'foreign-owned.' It is certainly a matter that will have to be addressed when we achieve power !

As I have always been interested in sport, especially cricket, tennis, football and rugby union, I am nauseated by the number of non-Aryans masquerading as 'British' and parading with the Union flag. Unfortunately the majority of supporters and followers of sports teams accept this multi-racial lunacy as a result of years of brainwashing and propaganda from the media etc.

RM Essex NS.

NEWS FROM THE GOLDEN DAWN

Hail Victory Comrades !

The annual Imia demonstration took place on the evening of February 1st 2014. There were about 15 - 20,000 people attending. Not so many as in 2013, but quite a lot for a 100% Nationalist event, but the System (ZOG) did not allow us to march this year.

In the first months of 2014 the ZOG has escalated its attacks against our Movement - Golden Dawn. Two out of our 18 MP's have defected; one of them bribed with 450,000 Euros ! The other one, who is incarcerated since 12th January 2014 because of cowardice.

Last week a short video was uploaded on the Russian Youtube, where the General Secretary of the Ministerial Council, (the right hand man of the traitorous Prime Minister) during a conversation with Golden Dawn MP Helias Kassidiaris, admitted that the prosecution of Golden Dawn by the System took place because the American Jewish Committee has ordered the Greek Prime Minister to do so !!! The General Secretary, P. Baltakos resigned that same day of this exposure and in a political crisis erupted.

In the same video it was revealed that Prime Minister A. Samaras, with the close collaboration of the Ministers of Justice, Athanasiou, and Public Order, Dendias, (who is also a Rothschild's lawyer), organised the persecution of our Movement, with the help of high ranking leftist and anti-Nationalist judges, (many are female/feminist attorneys). We know that ZOG will take ANY action possible to not allow Golden Dawn to take part in the upcoming May elections, but we are also very determined to not allow their dirty plans to come to a successful conclusion.

For a plethora of photos and videos of our activities visit the Golden Dawn website. Even if you cannot read Greek, the rich visual material is very rewarding and inspiring.

'88' From our Athens Correspondent.

A Swan is Accused of Being Racist !

It is not an 'April Fool' prank, but a story that has appeared in the national newspapers and has even generated a debate on BBC Radio 2.

In the grounds of Warwick University are a number of ornamental lakes and a pair of Mute Swans are nesting near one of the footbridges over the waterways.

One swan has been attacking black and Asian students walking near the nest, but not white students, so is the swan racist?

Some of the politically correct commentators seem to think so, one foreign student actually told a newspaper reporter that the swan's aggressive actions were clearly, "racially motivated" !

Such is the furore created by the swan's apparently racially selective aggression, that it became an item on the BBC Radio 2 Jeremy Vine show, where the topic of the phone-in debate was "Can Animals Be Racist?"

There was much liberal hand-wringing over the air-waves and everyone involved seemed to be deeply troubled that these birds could actually be displaying some kind of prejudice against people from the ethnic-minorities.

There were of course stories recalled of incidents in South Africa where dogs had been trained to attack Blacks but not Whites, with much heartfelt regrets that such things should ever have happened. And now racist swans....

Ignoring the fact the Mute Swans are birds, not mammals, are a completely different species to human beings and therefore cannot realistically adopt human traits, the observers should have considered the possibility that non-white humans may appear to the swans as a greater threat than the indigenous white humans it has grown up encountering.

Denmark Bans Ritual Slaughter

February 2014: The Danish Food Ministry has banned halal and kosher (shechita) slaughter in Denmark.

Muslim and Jewish communities in Denmark have been told that if they want to eat meat that has been ritually slaughtered they will have to import supplies of it.

This change in the Danish laws on animal slaughter has the approval of the European Forum for Animal Welfare Councils.

Predictably certain minority groups have become very angry that the Danish government has actually implemented a change in Danish law that is supported by the majority of Danish voters.

A group called Halal Denmark has started a campaign against the ruling claiming that the ban on halal ritual slaughter is "a clear interference in religious freedom". Meanwhile the ban on shechita ritual slaughter has drawn a predictable response from a representative of the Israeli government who stated that,

"European anti-semitism is showing its true colours."
